A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE

Profile

bubble was established in 1999 and has achieved phenomenal success. That success is, we believe, the result of three factors: the freshly prepared, mouth-watering food we serve, the truly personal service we offer and the great value for money that each of our clients enjoys.

Our chefs are continually experimenting to create unusual but delicious food.

Our highly experienced project managers always go that extra mile to ensure that our clients get exactly what they are looking for. Every project we undertake is treated as unique. Every client we work with is treated as unique.

The attention to detail with which we approach the finishing touches – such as room dressing, entertainment, flowers and lighting – transforms every occasion into a memorable one.

It is our mission to offer the best service possible, in every way, and we achieve this time and time again. Much of the work we undertake is repeat business and most new clients are referred to us by existing ones; we are incredibly proud of both these facts because they are testimony to us achieving our mission. Our current clients include the University of Arts London, Twentieth Century Fox, Warner Bros, Adobe, Faber and Faber and Concord Media plus many private clients looking to add glamour and sophistication to, for example, their wedding, house-warming or birthday.

Staff

bubble takes the time to select its staff, we believe a partnership with our employees is as important as the partnership we have with our clients. Principally, this creates happy employees, an atmosphere reflected in the service they provide to our clients.

Most of our function staff have been working with us for years gaining a wealth of knowledge and experience. Additionally we invest in 'off the job' training, ensuring they have competence in the service we provide. Since all our client requirements are so diverse our staff have become accustomed to adapting to whatever role they are required to fulfil, wherever and whenever.

We have a range of permanent and part time staff on hand to assist with the simplest to the most extravagant event. They are from career backgrounds as diverse as the services we offer. bubble believes inter-personal relations between our staff and the clients is important. Utilising staff from a wide field of cultures and careers means we are more adaptable to client requirements.

Our staff are the face of our operation, so whether we are delivering a lunch for just a few or preparing a banquet for hundreds, we will provide the same personal service and attention to detail that bubble is renowned for.

We take pride in the personal service we offer, our function staff are experienced and charming, no job is too big, or too small for bubble or our staff.
